As the Christmas Holiday approaches, what does Christmas mean to you?

- Is it celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ?
- Is it gift giving, spending time with family, loved ones and friends?
- Is it Christmas trees, decorations and lights, festivities?
- Is it children and Santa Clause?

We have many different traditions, customs and Religious beliefs. I do not doubt the sincerity of anyone's beliefs and do not discriminate how we choose to celebrate Christmas. May it bring you closer together, let us help those less fortunate than ourselves, may we be blessed.

Wishing you and your family a Merry Christmas and Safe Holiday. Enjoy!

In Solidarity,

Gary Holmes
President, UAW Local 933

WHY WE WEAR RED

Union members wear red shirts on Wednesdays as a sign of solidarity. When a sea of red shirts greets management, it's a way to let them know that the workers stand together.

This modern tradition goes back to 1989 with the Communications Workers of America (CWA) whose members began wearing red on Thursdays to commemorate the death of Gerry Horgan. Horgan was a CWA chief steward for Westchester County in New York who died of head injuries after being struck by a speeding car on a picket line. That vehicle was driven by a scab, the teenaged daughter of a manger. She was never charged for his death. Wearing the red shirt to show solidarity took on new meaning during Wisconsin's Gov. Scott Walker and his relentless attacks on labor in 2011.

Unionists around the country wanted to show solidarity with Wisconsin and donned red shirts once a week. Today, it remains an act of showing unity, both to one another and the world. It's not anti-management; it's a positive statement of workers standing together.

GERRY HORGAN

1955-1989

In 1989, members of Communications Workers of America (CWA) Local 1400 were on strike against NYNEX in Valhalla, New York.

E. Gerald Horgan, a steward from CWA Local 1103, was walking the picket line with the strikers on August 15 when he was struck by a speeding vehicle driven by a scab.

Horgan died, leaving behind a wife and two very young children. We wear red to remember the tragedy and symbolize the sacrifice Gerry made that day to fight for worker rights.

RED SHIRT WEDNESDAY

As I am writing this article the Shop Committee is preparing for contract negotiations with Rolls-Royce. We have moved to the negotiating site and by the time you read this we will be in full negotiating status. I am confident this Union leadership will fight hard for each and every member. We have all witnessed the struggles the auto industry has had in getting a fair and equitable agreement from GM, Ford and Chrysler. Once again, the U.A.W. has stood strong to support the workers through tough times. Although labor disputes are difficult it is always smart to be prepared. Believe me no one wins in those kind of stand offs but staying true to our values and fighting for the rights of the workers so we can all go home safe with good pay and benefits is essential. I ask we all stand together and be more 'UNION' than we have been in a long time. The Shop Committee is asking for all of us to come together in support. I believe whole heartedly our workforce can handle any challenge put in front of us. With a refurbished factory nearly complete and new work on the horizon we are in a great position to move forward. It's time to recognize that Union workers in Indianapolis are the best source of USA made parts and aircraft engines.

JOHN SNOW LOCAL 933/RR CHAIRMAN

With the approaching holidays, the Elected and Appointed representatives would like to say thank you for all your support this year. We would also like to wish you and your families a Merry Christmas holiday and Happy New Year.

I was trying to figure out how to put this article into words. I just fed my kids dinner and was arguing with my 9-year-old about dessert. She had refused to try her vegetable of the day. I said to myself “some kids would kill for these”. We’ve all said it, but for Theresa Ohaeme that’s not too farfetched. Theresa is an associate for Ford which is part of the UAW Local 933. She’s from Lagos, Nigeria. In Lagos, children are regularly abandoned and do not know where their next meal is coming from. Theresa is 39 years old and a college graduate from Olabisi Onabanjo University. She has a son who’s 5 years old. She’s in our country on Visa. Back home a child was abandoned and Theresa found her. That set everything in motion for Theresa. This again wasn’t uncommon in Lagos and not the first child she’d seen abandoned. With most of the homes for children overcrowded she decided to do more than drop the child off. She rented a 3-bedroom flat (an apartment). She found two ladies to help her and let them stay at the flat. She started a small home for abandoned and homeless children. She was struggling back home after her divorce and a fresh start was welcomed. When she talks about our country she glows. She even described it as peace and instant relief. This would be an awesome story if we stopped here, but it’s just the beginning. She struggled leaving the 15 kids that were in the home she had started but for her own mental health she needed the new beginning. So, in 2015 she made her journey here. She didn’t forget that tiny 3-bedroom flat back home and has sent anything and everything she could back home. She keeps in contact through social media and video chats with the kids at the home. Her family back home helps when they can. She sends about three to five hundred dollars back each month for food and school supplies or whatever else is needed. She frequents Goodwill and Burlington Coat Factory and sends clothes back as well. With Christmas time coming up she informed me she tries to give the kids back home a decent Christmas. Most of the kids were abandoned at the home and their birthdates are unknown. She came up with the idea to celebrate the day they come to the home as their birthday every year. The children have had bad luck in life being abandoned but they’re lucky there are people like Theresa in this world. I asked her if there was anything you wanted the people who were going to be reading this to know. She said “We should all appreciate where we are in the world. Everything we have, the food on our tables and roof over our heads. You have a good life appreciate it”. She’s a special person who could have dropped that poor child off at an overcrowded shelter but chose to do more. She wants to help as many kids as she can. She would love to save up enough to build a house back home. Twenty-nine kids in that 3-bedroom flat is pretty crowded. It seems fitting to me to end this article with a quote from Mother Teresa, “I alone cannot change the world, but I can cast a stone across the waters and create many ripples”.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The holiday season is upon us! Holidays are a time of celebration and thankfulness, a time to spend with family and friends, including our UAW family. This is also a time to remember our solidarity, a time to commemorate and be grateful for the bounty that is provided by hard work in America. We must be reminded of our freedoms and our privileges during this Thanksgiving season, let us remember our Brothers and Sisters who have fought for our freedom and opportunities, and show gratitude for their efforts. As we enjoy our freedoms and bounty, it is essential to remember the sacrifices that are involved in making our country diverse and influential.

The holiday seasons are the perfect time to reflect on our religious and political freedoms, to celebrate our diversity while showing our love, passion, and solidarity for the UAW. As the New Year approaches, let us all set new goals and plan for how these goals can be achieved. We must not only set individual or personal goals, but goals for our union and workforce, goals that will allow us to continue to perform our jobs with the highest quality, dedication, and success.

During this joyful holiday season, UAW Local 933 Bargaining Committee and Appointed Representatives want to extend our best wishes for a healthy and happy holiday season, filled with celebration, surrounded by friends, family, and loved ones. We shall continue to stand together and celebrate our solidarity and our continued determination to fight for what is right for all union members.

UAW Local 933 Chaplaincy Program

The UAW Chaplaincy program is non-denominational. Where some worksites have EAP (Employee Assistance Program) representatives, chaplains work in conjunction with them to assist members with life crisis; from divorce to substance abuse. Our Local 933 has two active chaplains appointed, Lisa Lloyd represents Rolls-Royce UAW side and Mark Hibbitt represents Allison Transmission UAW side. Our vision is to be a "Lighthouse" for our membership. Life gets dark sometimes, but there is Help and Safety when life happens, and storms and turbulences occur that shake our core and interrupt our Peace and places of comfort. The Chaplaincy is here for spiritual support and prayer that can aid in the help, strength and healing that our membership may need during those rough times. The Chaplaincy prays that the membership will take advantage of the provision of our local UAW Chaplaincy program and our EAP program. The Scripture says in Romans 15:1, We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak. As we approach the Holiday seasons, let us all be mindful to encourage one another and be more sensitive when we encounter one another, you may never know what someone may be going through! We have appointed people in these positions, but we can all be that beacon of light to our brother or sister, that they just may need in a particular moment. May God Bless and keep you all, and your families, In His Loving Care and Grace! We are here for you!

In Christ's Love, Lisa Lloyd, Chaplain UAW Local 933/Rolls-Royce

UAW LOCAL 933 VETERANS COMMITTEE

The Veterans Committee would like to thank all those who volunteered their time and efforts, and those who participated in this year's 7th Annual UAW Veteran's Car and Truck Show, benefiting Indy Honor Flight. We appreciate all the support for the event we hosted. We were able to raise $9,584.39, so that Indy Honor Flight can send Veterans to Washington DC, at no cost to the Veteran. Indy Honor Flight is a great organization that we'll continue to raise money for.

We'd like to encourage any of our members that if they know of anyone who'd like to sponsor, donate door prizes, or help the day of the 8th Annual Veteran's Car and Truck Show, please contact Jeremy Richard at uawlocal933veterans@yahoo.com.

Another opportunity for our committee to assist, is hosting an annual food drive for local Veterans in Indianapolis. Collecting and delivering food and hygiene supplies is a tremendous help to HVAF. This organization provides food and housing to Veterans who are homeless, or in different stages of recovery. 2019 was a success with us donating 1282 pounds of supplies for HVAF.

RON LONG RETIREE CHAIRMAN

The leaves are falling and winter is just around the corner. Time it seems has a way of moving quickly and can catch us unaware of the passing years. Just yesterday we were young, just married and starting life's journey with the love of our life. Yet in a way, it seems like eons ago. We wonder where the years went. We know we lived them, and we all have memories of our hopes and dreams. But here we are.... the winter of our lives. We are getting gray, moving slower and becoming those old folks we never thought we'd be. Each day now, we find getting a shower is the real target for the day! Taking a nap is not a treat anymore...it's mandatory! Cause if we don't do it of our own freewill... we just fall asleep where we sit!

"Life" is a gift. The way you live your life is your gift to those who come after. Make it a fantastic one. Remember: it is health that is real wealth... not pieces of gold and silver.

GM and the UAW have a new contract and time will once again move forward. Our brothers and sisters voted to accept the contract and sadly, we retirees didn't fare well. We submitted 4 demands but to my knowledge no action was taken to address our requests. The one area we may have improved is the Legal Services. Expanded Legal Services may now cover spouses of UAW active and retired member. The union also bargained an expansion of covered office work services to include:

- Traffic Matters – Tickets and moving violations
- Social Security – Plan attorneys will answer questions about Social Security benefits, including those related to retirement disability, terminations or overpayments.
- Medicare and Medicaid – Plan attorneys will provide legal guidance on issues related to Medicare and Medicaid benefits.

As we transition into the new contract, we know that the Benefit Rep for Indiana and Ohio is no longer with us and there are many questions and concerns. In the meantime, use the following telephone numbers to ask for assistance with your issues.

Pension questions – 800-489-4646

Health Care questions – 866-637-7555

All other questions – 313- 926-5594

Now to change to another topic. Our association with the Indiana Alliance has some info to share. The Democrats released a bill that will allow the government to negotiate lower drug prices. The bill is Lower Drug Price Negotiation Bill.

H.R. 3 repeals the so-called "no interference clause which currently prohibits the government from negotiating lower drug prices and requires the Secretary of Health and Human Services to negotiate on up to 250 of the most expensive drugs, including insulin. It is a lengthy bill and the highlights are:

- Limiting prices to International Drug index. Prices would be limited to 120% of the average cost of the drug in six other countries (Canada, United Kingdom, France, Germany, Australia and Japan).
- Excise Tax on Drug Corporations profits. Drug companies that do not comply with the agreed above would be subject to a 65% to 95%.
- The bill would limit increases to Drug prices under Medicare Part B and D. Cap on out-of-pocket drug spending under Medicare. The cap would be at $2000 a year. This is a plus when according to The Kaiser Family Foundation, the average out of pocket spending is over $8000.

We will be decorating the Hall on December 2nd and would love to have all the help we can get. As I close out this chat, I speak for the Executive Board when I say we wish a Very Merry Holiday Season to all and we may face concerns in the New Year but I have faith that we will continue to stay strong. We will have a new set of by-laws to consider and a new calendar for the upcoming New Year...

See you at the next meeting...

In Solidarity,

Ron Long
