GARY HOLMES LOCAL 933 PRESIDENT

Hello Brothers and Sisters!

It's been busy here at Local 933 in the past couple of months. In this issue of the Rocket you will see some of the photos of progress in motion. At a huge cost savings, thanks to all of the volunteer labor, we've only had to pay for materials to bring the front of the building up to par at this point. The Executive Board has done a great job of supporting these efforts getting our Union Hall back where it should be with maintenance updates and financially as well.

A special thanks to our neighbor, Cardinal, who helped relocate the 8,000 pound Veteran's Memorial Rock, and everyone that volunteered and pitched in to help. Thank you to our own Local's rank and file members, electricians, carpenters, millwrights, appointed and elected along with our maintenance personnel.

We have also received training provided from the Region 2-B Education Department, Servicing Rep. Staff, Rolls-Royce Appointed Safety Instructors and UAW Attorneys at no charge to the Local for the following classes: FMLA & ADA / SAFETY TRAINING / GRIEVANCE HANDLING / COLLECTIVE BARGAINING and PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES. These training classes were provided to your elected representative so that they may better serve you.

I would like to thank our Region 2-B Director, Rich Rankin, the Education Department and all the instructors for a job well done in allowing our Local to excel.

In closing, I would like to wish everyone a safe and enjoyable Labor Day weekend.

In Solidarity,

LABOR DAY

When you hear the word Labor Day, what's your first thought? A day off from work, a three-day weekend, or grilling and chilling with family and friends...and finally the end of summer is here.

What did it take to get such a National Holiday that is recognized by the Organized Labor Movement and at-will-workers? The history of the Labor Movement can go on and on with countless stories of those who have made the ultimate sacrifice of laying down their lives for equality, standing up for what is right, and fighting corrupt labor judicial systems.

Let's travel down memory lane: The Pullman Strike of 1894, where the Railroad workers revolted against the railroad industry and the rail-car manufacturer George Pullman. The protest/strike incorporated over 250,000 employee and supporters organized by The American Railway Union from coast-to-coast. They refused to be treated unfairly and brought the national railroad industry/transportation system to a grinding halt.

Unfortunately, some of the striking workers paid with their lives during the revolt when the Government petitioned the courts for an injunction to put an end to the strike. President Grover Cleveland activated Federal Troops to bring peace and civil order, but the opposite happened; destruction and carnage was the result at a downtown rail-yard when the two opposing entities met face-to-face.

Here's another story: "The Battle of The Overpass," in 1937. This battle is where Walter Reuther & Richard Frankensteen preached and passed out literature: "We want unionism, not Fordism!" at the Ford River Rouge Complex. They were brutally attacked and beaten by Ford Salary Employees and professional thugs hired by Ford to act as Security. Both leaders survived the vicious attack by the Ford Motor Company mob and charges were later filed for possibly violating The Federal Wagner Act of 1935, also known as the "Nation Labor Relations Act."

The photos of the beaten UAW leaders appeared in newspapers throughout the Country, sparking public outrage and turning the tide of public opinion towards Labor.

In closing, the 1st Labor Day Holiday was celebrated September 5, 1882, but the continued weakening and destruction of the Labor Movement is still ongoing as I type this.

So as we celebrate September 2nd, 2019, let's not forget those that laid down their lives so we can say "Happy Labor Day!"

In Solidarity,
George Freeman III
Bargaining Chairman, Local933/ATI Unit

Back in the mid-1930s, the UAW started by being organized from the shop floor. The shop workers gave of their personal time and energy to form Locals; the Locals banded together and were recognized as one Union. The entire UAW was founded on this Spirit of volunteerism to a greater cause!

Today, we seek to carry on that great, driving Spirit within our own Local. It is up to each and every one of us to keep building on - and with - that Spirit to encourage solidarity in our ranks and for the betterment of each and every Member, their families, and communities. In our Local, that Spirit lives on in our volunteer Committees! These Committees give each and every Member a chance to participate in an effort to build better lives for themselves and their fellow workers.

To volunteer our time, to serve our Membership for the benefit of our Sisters and Brothers, is an effort that is never wasted!

RON LONG RETIREE CHAIRMAN

Well, summer is in full swing and July is on record as the hottest month recorded. June was also a hot month for elections in the Local and our Chapter. We have a new Executive Board. Gary Holmes is our new President and we look forward to all the changes we are witnessing. The best change I have seen to date is the front of the hall. The big rock is moved to a new spot next to the Ten Commandments. New lighting and the UAW letters are polished to a smooth finish. This entire works is a fitting tribute to the veterans that have and are serving our USA.

Now as to our chapter, I was recently elected President of the Indiana Alliance for Retired Americans. Our previous President, Elmer Blankenship, has stepped down and is our President Emeritus. Elmer served his position with dedication and I have big shoes to fill. Our chapter is an affiliate member and the Alliance keeps our chapter informed and quite busy. I would like to share a course of action that our chapter has been asked to participate in.

Drug prices are a big concern to all of us. With assistance from our National, we are starting a campaign. "Let's Tell Our Stories to Bring Drug Prices Down". Putting a face to the issues we champion will increase our ability to make change.

Storytelling is the most compelling way to organize. The Alliance is embarking on a yearlong effort to recruit retirees to share their personal stories of expensive medicines and health care they have experienced. To assist in this effort, the National Alliance will issue $50 grants to State Alliance for each individual personal storyteller recruited, with a goal of five individuals per state by November of this year. Because the purpose of this program is to identify stories that illustrate the necessity for change, grants for State Alliance will be awarded for personal storytellers able to participate in this program. We all know individuals that have health concerns but may not know how they are coping with high drug costs. These grants are designed to strengthen our national story bank to connect retirees to policymakers and the media to push for lower costs of prescription medicines.

Once we identify activists that fit into this program we will notify the Alliance. There is a form to be filled out and returned to the Alliance. After an interview, their stories will be published on a national story bank webpage. From there, we will work to plan mobilization events and actions to bring attention to the high cost of prescription drugs. Example of stories could be:

David, Gardnerville, MA Had a heart attack which bankrupted me as for the first time in my life I was without healthcare. Plavix was required at $300+ per month, like I could afford that.

Janet, Jackson Heights, NY A year ago I was prescribed Ibrance, It cost, $15,000 for a three week supply.

These are just a few collected so far. We need to find people who are experiencing high or increasing drug prices to share during congressional and state lobby visits, speaking at membership meetings, rallies and direct action.

If you fit the bill or know someone that does, then contact me and we will start the interview process.

Now back to our chapter. We are having a cook out for our August meeting. Thanks to all those that volunteered to prepare hamburgers and hotdogs. I am getting hungry just writing this article. We plan to have pork chops in September. The chapter supplies the meat and it is still a pitch in so bring your favorite dish to share and that includes desserts.

I look forward to delicious food and friendship and fellowship. We have a great chapter and it is because we have great members and solidarity. See you soon...

In Solidarity, Ron Long
