LOCAL 933 PRESIDENT

Changing Lives through Community Service

To see yourself through someone else's eyes, what would you see? When it comes to community service, I think you would see the caring desire and eagerness that you have when it comes to that glimmer of hope to make a positive change in someone's life. When you participate in community service activities not only do we try to make a change for others and the neighborhoods in which we live and work, but it also helps you become a better person with a feeling of goodness that can last a lifetime. Seeing yourself in ways that you may not have otherwise seen, like your strength in stepping up in good times and bad times or your ability for making someone happy with just a smile and a wave.

"For every life you touch, there's a light reflected back on your own. You learn, you grow, and you see the world with new eyes. Advice: Next time you get involved, look around at the faces of those you're helping and those working alongside you. You'll see the impact your actions have, and that's a mighty good feeling." (Jessa Claire/Upjourney)

I am extremely proud of all the UAW Local 933 Standing Committees, especially the Community Service Committee which has become very active over the past five years. What have they done? Everything from feeding the needy and providing gifts at Christmas to underprivileged children, cleaning up roadways, finding resources for those needing help in everyday situations and have created a resource page on our website. Working with the Red Cross in emergencies such as apartment fires, for example, where the facilities here at Local 933 were opened up for disaster relief and Covid testing was held here during the pandemic. Through fundraisers, with the help of other UAW Locals, CAP Councils and businesses raised enough money to have a UAW Cabin built at the Indiana Sheriffs' Youth Ranch to help at-risk kids across the entire state of Indiana. Working hand in hand with each other we currently have 13 different committees. There's not enough space to detail every committee's action but the UAW awareness created through community activities and support speaks for itself. All of their accomplishments and goodness is greatly appreciated.

For many years we have supported a local organization here in the Mars Hill area close to the union hall called Community Caring and Sharing. Unfortunately, due to age and health issues they just recently had to close their doors. CC&S did so much more in our surrounding community other than feeding and clothing the needy. They also provided Reading Programs, Computer Classes and GED classes all free of charge. As we look for other organizations in the area to partner up with, all of the volunteers and staff at Community Caring and Sharing will be greatly missed. The needs are still there and we must somehow try and fill that void.

I want to thank our Community Service Chairpersons, Tammy Pace from our Rolls-Royce unit, Scott Hatton from our Allison Transmission unit and Alyssa McCammon the liaison to the Executive Board, along with the other 29 Community Services/Disaster Relief Committee Members who make all of these things happen and do an outstanding job in representing UAW Local 933 within our communities. Anyone interested in joining a committee (retired or active) please call the president's office at the union hall.

All while networking and building new relationships; one of the best ways to make a difference is by leaving our footprint in the community.

On behalf of the UAW Local 933 Executive Board, we wish you a safe and enjoyable Labor Day Holiday!

In Solidarity,

Organizing 101

Greetings UAW Local 933 Members,

I am Zachary Boyd and it is with great pride that I take on the role of Organizing Committee Chair within our union family. My journey with the UAW began back in 2013 as a member of UAW Local 1166 Kokomo Casting. In 2022, I transitioned to a new opportunity at Canpack, which was conveniently located closer to my home. However, my time at Canpack opened my eyes to the injustices and manipulation within the company, prompting me to reach out to Teamster Local 135 to initiate organizing efforts.

As I took on the lead role in organizing the plant, I faced harassment and ultimately, wrongful termination for advocating for our collective voice. Despite this setback, I dedicated myself full-time to the campaign, seeing it through to the end. This experience ignited a passion within me to ensure that all workers have a voice and are treated with the respect they deserve in their workplaces.

Our Organizing Committee is ready and enthusiastic to begin our work in fostering solidarity within our Local, and expanding our organization to support those in need of fair wages, benefits, social and economic justice, and job security. Together, let us build a stronger, more inclusive union that fights for the rights of all workers. Anyone interested in joining the Organizing Committee please contact myself or President Holmes at the Union Hall.

In Solidarity,
Zachary Boyd 765-244-1774
Organizing Committee Chair, UAW Local 933/ATI Unit

UAW/ Rolls-Royce Employee Engagement Team

It is always good to see people who are fortunate, giving back to those who have struggled or fallen on tough times. It is also a way to say thank you to those who have dedicated their lives to a cause that betters others like the people of the United States Armed Forces. Our UAW Local 933 Employee Engagement Team at Rolls-Royce does that each year by organizing gate and lobby entrance collections at all the Rolls-Royce facilities here in Indy. Today our UAW workforce is responsible for collecting for programs such as Toys for Tots which helps the US Marine Corp. give gifts to needy children at Christmas. The Pack to School Supply Drive provides much-needed school supplies to low-income students at Stout Field Elementary. Our Employee Engagement team also collects Christmas gifts for needy children that goes to support the Mary Riggs Neighborhood Center each year. As for Veterans, UAW employees again come through and support Indy Honor Flight. Through multiple events and drawings our Employee Engagement team helps support day trips to Washington D.C. for select UAW Veterans or Veteran family members. The trip includes visits to Arlington Cemetery, and other historic sites in the area. The UAW has a great history of supporting people and the communities they live in. When I asked Employee Engagement Team Lead Lena Wise why this was so important to her, she stated: “I am thankful to be UAW and have an amazing job where I get to support our membership. I feel the same way about Employee Engagement. My dad was a WWII Navy Vet. I saw his struggles, so I enjoy connecting with and helping Veterans in our community. HVAF and Indy Honor Flight are two great organizations that make a profound difference in our Veterans’ lives. Helping low-income Kiddos is also especially important to me and my family. Seeing the look on their faces when we deliver backpacks or presents is priceless. Building self-esteem, providing basic life supplies and fostering community makes an enormous difference for their future. Mary Riggs, Stout Field, and Toys for Tots are the shop floor favorites. Our membership’s generosity warms my heart! We are not giving to agencies with high overhead; the money, food, supplies, and gifts directly impacts our community.” That says it all, so we are very thankful to have our UAW team in place to show being in a union is so much more than people think. Thank you, Local 933 UAW/Rolls-Royce Employee Engagement and our members who always give back.

On Monday, September 2nd, 2024, we will celebrate Labor Day. Thank you to all our workers, active and retired, for all you have done. This is an extremely important day for workers and especially UAW workers like you who get it done every day. Please enjoy the holiday and what it means to the American worker.

Union Strong,
John Snow

CAP Corner

On Wednesday, July 31, the UAW International Executive Board threw its support behind Kamala Harris for President of the United States. This endorsement reflects their confidence in Harris, who, along with the Biden administration, has consistently backed the UAW and achieved major wins for working-class Americans.

Harris has a history of standing with labor. Back in 2019, long before the Stand Up Strike, she joined autoworkers on the picket line, showing solidarity during a critical moment for the industry. She's also taken a strong stance against corporate price-gouging and profiteering, advocating for fairer practices that protect workers. Additionally, Harris has been a vocal opponent of trade deals like NAFTA and its successor, USMCA, which have been criticized for undermining American jobs and hurting the manufacturing sector. Her commitment to labor issues is clear, and it's why the UAW is backing her run for the presidency.

While the UAW doesn't have a specific "season" dedicated exclusively to Community Service, their commitment to giving back to their surrounding community and especially the Membership is a year-round endeavor where our membership dedicates their very own personal time.

The United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW) has a rich tradition of being connected to and invested in their communities; the connection extends beyond the factory floor. Their work encompasses a diverse array of initiatives and programs, extending their impact to various areas.

The local Community Services Committees are at the heart of the UAW's community outreach. They provide essential support for members facing hardships, such as food assistance, blood drives, organ donor awareness, support for laid-off workers, housing support, and disaster relief, etc.

Our Local Community Services go beyond supporting individuals during difficult times. We also organize events like the Annual Easter Egg Hunt, Veteran's Car Show for Indy Honor Flight, Trunk or Treat and Christmas with Santa to express our gratitude to our extended membership family and community.

At the core of our Local Union's mission lies the UAW's integral belief in the importance of Community Service. Their ongoing efforts are instrumental in building communities that are stronger and more resilient, leading to an improved quality of life for our members, families and the community.

In Solidarity,
George Freeman III

SCAB

After God had finished the rattlesnake, the toad and the vampire, He had some awful substance left with which He made a SCAB. A SCAB is a two-legged animal with a corkscrew soul, and a water-logged brain and a combination backbone made of jelly and glue. Where others have hearts, he carries a tumor of rotten principles. A strikebreaker is a traitor to his God, his country, his family and his class!

UAW COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMITTEE

Purpose of the Community Services Standing Committee

The Community Services Committee performs the important task of getting help for members and their families in time of need. If being there to assist when an emergency, natural disaster, or even just hard times strike is something you feel strongly about, then this is the committee to give your time and effort to. Some examples of community service activities include:

- ▶ hurricane relief
- ▶ organ donor awareness
- ▶ food drives
- ▶ blood drives
- ▶ support for laid off workers

The Community Services Committee works through public and private organizations to assure that members faced with problems in emergency situations get relief when needed.

Generally, strike insurance benefits are handled by this committee when local unions are forced to demonstrate their economic strength. This committee serves as the local's link with the community as we all work together to help those in need.

RALLY FOR REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS Indianapolis, IN 2024

On the 2nd Anniversary of the overturning of Roe v. Wade, Hoosier Women rallied at the Statehouse for privacy, autonomy and reproductive freedom. At a time when we should be focused on expanding equity and support for all working people, particularly working women, attacks on reproductive healthcare access only deepen economic disparities. Union women have fought hard for healthcare benefits that workers and their families rely on. It's time we had Leadership in Indiana that will fight for Hoosier Women's fundamental freedoms, economic security and women's equitable participation in the workforce.

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer, being with family and friends. It won't be long before autumn is here.

Don't forget the UAW Trust will be at our Union Meeting and Luncheon on September 10th. They will go over some of the new benefits starting in 2025. Not only will they give us information, but it's a great opportunity to ask your questions. We will have fried chicken and sides provided by the Board. You will only have to bring a dessert if you want to share. Even though the calendar says box lunches, we switched months. Box lunches will be provided at the August 13th meeting.

Don't forget we have one more gambling trip on October 10th to the Four Winds Casino in South Bend, IN. Contact JoAnn Reeves (317-923-4624) for bus seats to go on the gambling trip. We also have tickets to Beef and Boards to see "Million Dollar Quartet" on September 25th. Contact Phyllis Smith (317-771-4600) for further information and tickets.

See you all at the Hall for information, fun and food!
